Official Announcements

Tue. Feb. 13—Attend Community Town Hall

The next Community Town Hall will be on Tue. Feb. 13 at 6 p.m. at Preston Hall. Community leaders from the Garrison Command Group, Directorate of Public Works, AAFES, Service Credit Union, the Commissary, DMWR, DoDDs, Chaplains Office, Legal assistance and more will be on hand to answer your questions and address your concerns. All community members are encouraged to attend. If you have questions... we have answers!

You Can Make a Difference!

Participate in the 2007 Bamberg AFAP Conference

The success of this years AFAP Conference depends on you. Bamberg's Army Family Action Plan (AFAP) needs volunteer delegates to serve on panels that will evaluate quality-of-life issues and proposed solutions. Over the years, AFAP has made hundreds of improvements to the quality of life on Army installations around the world. Feb. 26, 27, and 28 is your chance to be part of the solution to help make Bamberg Warner Barracks a better place to work and live.

Got issues? Get AFAP. Do you have concerns with the quality-of-life services or support provided by the U.S. Army? Areas of concern include but are not limited to Consumer Services, Retirees Services, Child and Youth Services, Medical and Dental Services, Housing, Schools, Employment, Force Support and Family Support. Issue forms and collection boxes are located at the Food Court, Commissary Lobby, ACS Bldg. 7029, and in the AAFES mini-mall hall way. To request a form via e-mail send a message to BambergAFT-BAFAP@cmtymail.98asg.army.mil For more information or to volunteer contact Mary Thompson at 469-7777.

Health and Safety

Health Clinic Enforces “No Show” Policy

Patients must arrive 15 minutes before their appointment time. It is their obligation to cancel appointments as soon as possible. As long as notification occurs at least 24 hours in advance the appointment will not count as a No-Show. If patients are more than 5 minutes late for an appointment, they WILL be considered a No-show.

If patients No-Show two appointments within 6 a month period they will not be allowed to pre-book appointments and the following applies for:

Active Duty Personnel:

Before receiving a third appointment, they must be given written counseling by their supervisor and show that counseling to the health clinic triage nurse. If they No-Show a third time within that 6 month period, before receiving another appointment, they must be accompanied by their supervisor to the appointment.

Family Members:

Before receiving a third appointment, they must be accompanied to the clinic by their sponsor to the appointment. If a third No-Show occurs within that 6 month period, they must be accompanied by their sponsor and their sponsor's supervisor to the appointment.

No one will ever be denied emergency medical treatment, an annual examination or treatment needed for deployment.

Children can not accompany patients

The Health Clinic cannot assume responsibility for watching children. Patients should not bring children (under the age of 14) to any health appointments, but their own. If patients bring their children to an appointment, it will be counted as a No-Show, and they will have to re-schedule their appointment.

Effective immediately: This policy will be enforced at the front desk of the Health Clinic! If there are any questions, you may come in and speak with the Executive Officer.

Contact Health Clinic by E-Mail

Bamberg Health Clinic patients can now contact the Health Clinic by e-mail to cancel an appointment or submit a comment / complaint. Executive Officer LT Benko will personally read the e-mails every morning. When cancelling an appointment via e-mail please include you name, last four digits of the sponsor's social security number and date of appointment / incident and a return phone number.

The new e-mail address is:

Reader's Digest Word Power Challenge Winners

Congratulations to the Reader's Digest Word Power Challenge winners, fourth / fifth grade student Caitlin Johnson (left) and sixth grader Nick Price (right). Students qualified for the vocabulary contest by taking a preliminary classroom test. The classroom finalists participated in the challenge. The BES winners will now compete in an online test for a chance to go to the state round. National champions have a chance for a $25,000 scholarship. Good luck Bamberg!

Sixth Grader Wins Annual Spelling Bee

27 students from grades three to six participated in the annual BES Spelling Bee on Jan. 24. First place went to Mark Witter, a sixth grader from Ms. Tucker's class. Second place was won by Isaac Hoffman and third place went to Patrick Mann both students from Mr. Howell's class. Congratulations to all the spellers. Mark Witter will be the Bamberg Elementary School representative in the All Europe Spelling Bee held at the Ramstein Elementary School in March.

Child Developmental Screenings Available

CHILD FIND is the ongoing process used by DoDDS to identify individuals (3 to 21 years of age) who might be in need of special education and related services. Your local DoD school wants to locate, identify, and with parent permission, evaluate all children who are entitled to receive an education from DoDDS and who may need special education and related services because they have a disability. If you have concerns regarding your child's development, contact the Bamberg Elementary School at 469-7616, 0951-300-7616 or email ChildFind@eu.dodea.edu. Developmental screening appointments are available for children ages 3 to 5.

Commissaries offer recipes and healthy choices for Super Bowl treats

By DeCA Home Economist Kay Blakley

Wasn't it just a few weeks ago when a lot of us resolved to start the year off right by dropping a few pounds, and leading a healthier lifestyle? Now here we are, faced with yet another celebration calling for good food — the first Sunday in February is Super Bowl time! Inviting a houseful of football-crazed friends to cheer your team to victory is hard enough in itself, but eliminating the tasty snacks that accompany the event is unthinkable. Don't despair! By making informed choices, you can still serve scrumptious Super Bowl treats without putting too serious a dent into the weight loss and healthy lifestyle progress you've made.

Fruit and vegetable trays from your commissary produce department, for example, are excellent choices. So are deli trays filled with low-fat, low-sodium, meats and cheeses. Even though deli selections are typically freshly sliced and wrapped for your convenience, most items do have nutrition labels on the package, so ask to see these when deciding what you want on your tray.

Offer a selection of whole grain breads or buns alongside the deli tray. Be careful, though, when it comes to condiments to slather on those breads — almost all varieties of mustard are nearly calorie free, but not so with mayonnaise. Use a fat-free or low-fat variety, if you like the taste. If not, use full-fat versions very sparingly.

Game-time treats like chips and dips usually mean highly processed, high in fat, and high in calories, right? Not so with the Pico de Gallo on the next page — an entire batch has only about 90 calories. At that rate, you could eat it with a spoon! It's good enough to eat it that way, too, so be sure to double or triple the recipe. Keep the fat count low by baking your own corn tortilla chips to serve with it. There's really nothing to it but slicing ready-made tortillas into wedges and popping them into the oven for a few minutes, but the aroma wafting from your kitchen says you're baking a gastronomic delight.

If none of these suggestions strike your fancy, how does North Carolina-Style barbeque made with lean, low-calorie chicken breasts sound? How about California Guacamole or Layered Taco Bean Dip? Come to the Kay's Kitchen page of <http://www.commissaries.com> for the recipes, and come to the commissary for all the ingredients.

Pico de Gallo

½ cup chopped fresh cilantro
2 green onions, thinly sliced
2 large ripe tomatoes, chopped
1 teaspoon or more, to taste, minced garlic
Combine all ingredients in a small bowl and serve.

Flower Shop Taking Orders for Valentine's Day

Outside the Gate!Schools in Bavaria Take Winter Break

Schools in Bavaria will be closed Feb. 19 through Feb. 24 for Winter break. Only eleven of Germany's 16 states offer Winter break for their students. So, while Bavarian kids enjoy a full week of vacation, children in Berlin will only have one day off during that time. School will be in session the entire week for children who live way up north in Schleswig-Holstein. School holidays vary by region because official holidays are not set by the National Government but by the federal state governments. So in fact, some students attend school more days per year than others. Of course, generations of school children have unsuccessfully complained.

Events for Fasching

The weeks before the last days of Fasching are filled with parades, parties and balls all over town. If you go to a party or ball, remember it's more fun if you where a costume! Fasching costumes are generally more whimsical than traditional American Halloween costumes (so it may be a good idea to leave your Freddy Krueger Mask at home). You can purchase inexpensive costumes, hats, and accessories at any large department store (i.e. MarktKauf, Kaufland). Peter Schauer's Costume and Party Shop on Nürnberger Str. sells and rents anything you can imagine! Have fun! Don't miss this unique opportunity while living overseas.

Bamberg February Movies

Monthly movie synopsis information can be found here in the Warner Weekly at the top of every Month or online at www.aafes.com. Movies are listed in the order they will appear.

Casino Royal (Rated PG-13)

(Daniel Craig, Judi Dench)

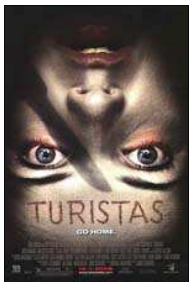

James Bond's first 007 mission takes him to Madagascar, where he is to spy on a terrorist Mollaka. Not everything goes as planned and Bond decides to investigate, independently of the MI6 agency, in order to track down the rest of the terrorist cell. Following a lead to the Bahamas, he encounters Dimitrios and his girlfriend, Solange. He learns that Dimitrios is involved with Le Chiffre, banker to the world's terrorist organizations. The marathon game proceeds with dirty tricks and violence, raising the stakes beyond blood money and reaching a terrifying climax. Rated PG-13 (violent action, torture, sexual content, nudity) 144 min

Freedom Writers (Rated PG-13)

(Hilary Swank, Imelda Staunton)

A dedicated California teacher finds a way to unify her disadvantaged, racially divided students, and to improve their grasp of academics, partly by having them keep journals about their violent, troubled lives. Rated PG-13 (violent content, thematic material, language) 123 min

Turistas (Rated R)

(Josh Duhamel, Melissa George)

A group of young backpackers' vacation turns sour when a bus accident leaves them marooned in a remote Brazilian jungle that holds an ominous secret. Rated R (violence, disturbing content, sexuality, nudity, drug use, language) 92 min

The Holiday (Rated PG-13)

(Cameron Diaz, Kate Winslet, Jude Law, Jack Black)

In writer/director Nancy Meyers' ("Something's Gotta Give," "What Women Want") "The Holiday," two women on opposite sides of the globe, Amanda Woods (Cameron Diaz) and Iris Simpkins (Kate Winslet) find themselves in a similar predicament. Desperate for a change of scenery, the two women meet on the internet and swap houses for the Christmas holiday discovering that a change of address really can change your life.

Catch and Release (Rated PG-13)

(Jennifer Garner, Timothy Olyphant)

After the sudden death of her fiancé, Gray Wheeler finds comfort in the company of his friends: light-hearted and comic Sam, hyper-responsible Dennis, and, oddly enough, his old childhood buddy Fritz, an irresponsible playboy whom she'd previously pegged as one of the least reliable people in the world. As secrets about her supposedly perfect fiancé emerge, Gray comes to see new sides of the man she thought she knew, and at the same time, finds herself drawn to the last man she ever expected to fall for. 111 minutes.

Unaccompanied Minors (Rated PG)

(Wilmer Valderrama, Dyllan Christopher)

It's Christmas Eve and a huge blizzard has just shut down the airport, threatening to ruin holiday plans for all stranded travelers. Snowed in en route to their father's house, two "Unaccompanied Minors"--dubbed UMs--Spencer and his little sister, Katherine, are ushered to the airport's Unaccompanied Minors Room. With the airport's peevish Passenger Relations Manager Oliver Porter, his lackey assistant Zach Van Bourke and every airport security guard hot on their trails, this group of UMs from cliques that don't mix learn to ditch their differences and help each other flee the clutches of airport authority. 89 min

The Messengers (Rated PG-13)

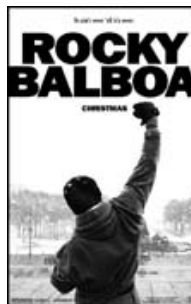

(Kristen Stewart, Dylan McDermott)

A family moves into a run-down sunflower farm. As the farm begins to revive after years of disrepair, the family begins to notice uncomfortable and alarming changes in their father's behavior. Rated PG-13 (mature thematic material, disturbing violence and terror) 87 min

Eragon - (Rated PG)

(Edward Speleers, Jeremy Irons) A boy named Eragon finds a polished blue stone in the forest. At first, he thinks it's a lucky discovery, something that will bring meat to his poor family for the winter. Instead, it brings a dragon hatchling, and Eragon is soon thrust into a world of magic and power through which he and the dragon must navigate. Rated PG (fantasy violence, battle sequences, frightening images) 97 min

Rocky Balboa - (Rated PG)

(Sylvester Stallone, Burt Young) Former heavyweight champion Rocky Balboa steps out of retirement and back into the ring, pitting himself against a new rival decades after his initial glory. When a computer simulated boxing match declares Rocky Balboa the victor over current champion Mason "The Line" Dixon, the legendary fighter's passion and spirit are reignited. But when his desire to fight in small, regional competitions is trumped by promoters calling for a rematch of the cyber-fight, Balboa must weigh the mental and physical risks of a high profile exhibition match against his need to be in the ring. 102 min

Blood Diamond (Rated R)

Set against the backdrop of civil war and chaos in 1990's Sierra Leone, Blood Diamond is the story of Danny Archer (Leonardo DiCaprio) - a South African mercenary - and Solomon Vandy (Djimon Hounsou) - a Mende fisherman. Both men are African, but their histories as different as any can be, until their fates become joined in a common quest to recover a rare pink diamond that can transform their lives. While in prison for smuggling, Archer learns that Solomon - who was taken from his family and forced to work in the diamond fields - has found and hidden the extraordinary rough stone. With the help of Maddy Bowen (Jennifer Connelly), an American journalist whose idealism is tempered by a deepening connection with Archer, the two men embark on a trek through rebel territory, a journey that could save Solomon's family and give Archer the second chance he thought he would never have.

The Good Shepherd (Rated R)

(Matt Damon, Robert Di Niro)

Edward Wilson understands the value of secrecy--discretion and commitment to honor have been embedded in him since childhood. Wilson's acute mind, spotless reputation and sincere belief in American values render him a prime candidate for a career in intelligence, and he is soon recruited to work for the OSS (the precursor to the CIA) during WWII. Wilson develops into one of the Agency's veteran operatives, all the while combating his KGB counterpart. However, his steely dedication to his country comes at an ever-increasing price. 168 min

Norbit (Rated PG-13)

Norbit (Eddie Murphy) has never had it easy. As a baby, he was abandoned on the steps of a Chinese restaurant/orphanage and raised by Mr. Wong (Eddie Murphy). Things get worse when he's forced into marriage by the mean, junk food-chugging queen, Rasputia (Eddie Murphy). Just when Norbit's hanging by his last thread, his childhood sweetheart, Kate (Thandie Newton), moves back to town. In the comedy "Norbit," he'll show them all that nice guys sometimes finish first.

Apocalypto (Rated R)

(Dalia Hernandez, Mayra Serbulo)

Set in the Mayan civilization, when a man's idyllic presence is brutally disrupted by a violent invading force, he is taken on a perilous journey to a world ruled by fear and oppression where a harrowing end awaits him. Through a twist of fate and spurred by the power of his love for his woman and his family he will make a desperate break to return home and to ultimately save his way of life. Rated R (intense detailed graphic violence/sexuality/ gore/ disturbing images) 138 min
